

COMPUTER SAVVY SENIORS IN THE SALISH SEA.

Topics: 1) May 29th: Introduction to computing and Mac OS X

2) June 5: Learning the OS X User Interface

3) June 12: File Management

4) June 19: Programs, applications and software

5) June 26: Getting online

6) July 3: Installing peripherals and next steps

1. Weekly Stand-alone workshops are designed to cover a wide variety of tech related subjects. Each month will cover specific topic or theme.

REGISTER • Friday June 14th 1:30-3:00 Email: Email has become such an essential part of our lives, and yet most of us use email technology that is more than 15 years old. Learn about the new developments in how we use email to communicate that can help protect ourselves from loss of data and help make our lives more productive.

REGISTER • Friday June 21st 1:30-3:00 : Back-ups 101: Creating a reliable back-up of your digital data is one of the most confusing subjects in computing today. In this one-hour workshop we will explore the different methods of backing a computer up and which one is right for you.

REGISTER • Friday June 28th 1:30-3:00 : Malware 101: Learn how to identify and remove the most popular online scams and malicious software that can infect your computer.

Topics for the Fall will include:

Cleaning up a slow computer, Setting up a new Computer and Setting up Peripherals.

Book a place for a course or workshop by: 1) e-mailing Melody or Tania at SGICRC@shaw.ca,

2) phoning Melody at 250-999-6363 or 3) going online to the CRC Web Site :

<http://www.sgicommunityresources.ca/> or the CRC Facebook page:

www.facebook.com/SGICommunityResourceCentre/